A short history of White House cats

"Cats," wrote The Conversation gravely in 2013, "remain under-represented in Washington."

It's a problem that the Bidens are set to remedy. Last week, first lady Jill Biden teased that a cat is "waiting in the wings" to join the family and their two dogs at the White House. The newcomer won't be the first four-legged friend to knock pens off the Resolute Desk, though; here are seven notable White House cats who blazed the trail for First Kitty Biden.
