In many cities, the skies are dramatically clearer. Some landmarks in polluted cities are much more visible than before.

The coronavirus' effect on human health has become clear. But changes to the Earth's ecological balance — and how we relate to nature — are only now beginning to appear.

Advancing Solutions to Care for Seniors, Now and in the Future

Older Americans, especially those with pre-existing health conditions, are particularly vulnerable to COVID-19, making it vital for them to stay at home, as much as possible. In many cases, this means that families have taken on added responsibilities, from running basic errands to overseeing medical treatments to providing extra companionship.

Even before the pandemic, the caregiving system could be unaffordable and hard to navigate, especially for the many seniors who will “age in place”— meaning they live independently in current homes or in a downsized home as they get older. According to the 2020 Gray New World Report, 79 percent of senior respondents (ages 55-70) plan to do this.

Welcome to Sausalito's Parks and Recreation Virtual Rec Room. Each day we will be featuring new content from our many instructors, Parks and Recreation Team, and from the web. This Rec Room was designed for our community to think inside-the-box (since you can't go outside), grow by learning new skills, and challenge ourselves on a daily basis.

New Zoom Class on Mixology. As part of its Virtual Rec Room, Sausalito Parks and Recreation is now offering a series of Thursday evening Zoom classes on the Magic of Mixology. You'll also learn the history and mystery around liquors, concoctions, and more. Enthusiasts, beginners, and professional bartenders are welcome! Each week we'll learn a new skill. The next class from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 21 will focus on stirred cocktails. Adults 21+ only. $12 per class. Please visit the online registration page to sign up.

The two other new Zoom classes launching this week are Strong Nation Bootcamp from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. on Sundays and Zumba Gold from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. on Mondays and Wednesday. Both are taught by Beth Wolly. Strong Nation Bootcamp is $10 per class; Zumba Gold is $8 per class.
