Please send along your suggestions for materials to add to the daily tips. We're always looking for good content.

Today at 4: A discussion of Seconds with the KANOPY FILM CLUB - HOSTED BY SAUSALITO LIBRARY

Here we all are, in a tidal wave of social crisis and change. In the best of times, change can be uncomfortable. These days, it can be downright scary. Yet, as the great Octavia Butler reminds us, change is constant. It can even be holy. Together with YBCA Senior Fellows Brett Cook and Liz Lerman, we have been thinking a lot about this subject. We've been sitting with the feeling that there is no going back to normal as a society. Normal, after all, was in dire need of transformation. And so, Liz, Brett and I have been digging for inspiration to lead us past old systems. We've been asking ourselves - who are the folks helping us leap into the new ways of being, doing, working, creating? We want to explore these questions with you.

Alchemy of the Reset is a conversation series hosted and created by YBCA Senior Fellows Brett Cook and Liz Lerman. Over several weeks, we will be dialoguing with thought leaders, including artists, educators, and more who Brett and Liz see as helping us to reset and create new systems post COVID 19 crisis, instead of simply snapping back to old ways. In line with their characteristic community building backgrounds, this is about a heart and human centered approach, with opportunities for audience connectivity and engagement.

Ambitious Bakers Are Finding Inspiration in Vincent van Gogh and Edvard Munch to Create Amazing Works of Focaccia-Bread Art

Extended self-isolation—not to mention the closure of restaurants—has gotten people back into their kitchens, where ambitious cooking has led to some of the most widely circulated images of life in lockdown.

Alongside sourdough starters and whipped dalgona coffee from Korea, “Garden Focaccia,” as it’s been dubbed—flat white loaves of bread beautifully decorated with colorful vegetables in floral designs—has become an internet sensation.

The delightful trend has been pioneered by Teri Culletto, who began baking bread in 2018, right around the time she visited a Vincent van Gogh exhibition at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston.

However, due to the pandemic, the City is facing a $4 million dollar deficit and we need to look elsewhere for CARSS funding. We need to raise a minimum of $20,000 by July 1, 2020 to keep CARSS operating through the next fiscal year.

If you are looking for a way to help Sausalito and its seniors during this crisis, please make a donation to CARSS today!

Established in 2015, CARSS (Call A Ride for Sausalito Seniors) has provided over 9,000 local rides and more than 5400 hours have been logged by our vetted volunteer drivers. When the shelter in place order was instituted, CARSS seamlessly transformed from a transportation program to a free shopping and delivery service for all eligible residents. Since the start of the crisis, over 300 services have been completed by our vetted volunteers including shopping and delivery, companionship calls and technical assistance with Zoom and Facetime. We have worked hard to keep even our most vulnerable seniors safe at home yet socially connected.

CARSS plans to continue as an errand service during this critical time and, when it is safe, return to a transportation program. We hope that you can help us accomplish this with a tax deductible donation.*

Tax deductible donations can be made directly to the City of Sausalito/CARSS. The tax ID number for the City is: 94-6000429.

Checks: Make payable to 'City of Sausalito/CARSS' and mail to 420 Litho Street, Sausalito, CA 94965, attn: Parks/Rec Department.

Credit cards: The City can also accept donations by credit card. Please contact the Parks/Rec Department at 415-289-4152. Staff are working remotely, please leave a message and they will return your call. Make the donation to 'City of Sausalito/CARSS'

CARSS (Call A Ride for Sausalito Seniors) is a City of Sausalito Age Friendly program managed by Sausalito Village. www.carss4you.org
