Former Ballerina With Alzheimer's Hears Music and Remembers Her Routine To 'Swan Lake'

Music can awaken the deepest parts of our memories—even if those moments seem gone forever. Marta C. González proves this in a poignant video that has recently gone viral. It shows González—a former New York City Ballet prima ballerina living with Alzheimer's disease—as she recognizes Tchaikovsky's classic Swan Lake. Upon hearing the music, González begins to move her arms and dance the routine she performed so long ago.
