Flat Street in Montreal Is a Visual Playground That Looks Like Undulating Sand Dunes

Outside the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts, the street undulates with rippling lines and geometric forms. Its surface is covered by an immersive mural appropriately named Moving Dunes. This morphing installation is the work of Montreal-based architecture firm NÓS, which was founded by Gil Hardy and Charles Laurence Proulx in 2016. The project—which was introduced alongside the 2018 MMFA exhibition From Africa to the Americas: Face-to-Face Picasso, Past and Present—was designed in response to the artistic approach

Young Leaders in Marin's Local Government Are Ready to Do the Work

Most people were wishing for 2020 to end and expected a magical, new reality. Unfortunately the world does not reset at the stroke of midnight, but Marin is in good hands with its batch of first-time elected government officials. Here are some of them.

Christmas Traditions From Around the World

The holidays are shaping up to look different for everyone this year. Travel restrictions, virtual gatherings, and socially distanced shindigs are the uninvited guests of this year's festivities—but they don't have to ruin the whole party. While globetrotting might not be a viable option this December, that doesn't mean inspiration can't come internationally.

The 'Guilty Dog' Challenge Got People Competing About Whose Dog Is The Naughtiest

Suspicious silence, lowered head, beguiling eyes, and tail pressed hard against the body signal that someone just got busted big time. Ask any dog owner and they will tell you it happens more often than you think!

Virtually explore captivating Cape Town

Cape Town, South Africa's scenic city on the Cape Peninsula, blends natural wonders with a sense of history and a modern sophistication. Come along as we take a virtual tour to some of the area's most significant sites.
